

Expression of Interest

Primary Care Workforce GP Advisor

South Western Sydney Primary Health Network (SWSPHN) is seeking expressions of interest from experienced GPs to take on a GP advisory role in the Primary Care Workforce Team. GP Advisors will facilitate stakeholder engagement and consultation and provide guidance on the planning and implementation of SWSPHN initiatives as required. GP Advisors will also provide local clinical input into the GP Workforce Planning and Prioritisation (WPP) program, a national program to advise the Department of Health and Aged Care (DoHAC) on priority locations for GP registrar training placements to meet current and future GP workforce needs. This will inform the future distribution of the GP registrar workforce across communities in SWSPHN and support broader workforce engagement, development and strategy planning in SWSPHN.

To apply for this role, you must:

Essential

- Have a minimum of five years' experience working as a GP in ACT/NSW and have a sound understanding of PHNs and their purpose.
- Have highly effective advocacy and stakeholder engagement skills including experience in small group facilitation and delivering presentations.

Desirable

- Be an accredited GP Supervisor with RACGP or ACRRM have and have relevant and current knowledge of the Australian General Practice Training (AGPT) Program and the emerging challenges and opportunities related to GP training in Australia.

Time commitment and remuneration

Work will be assigned to GP Advisors on an as-needs basis and will vary according to business requirements. GPs Advisors will be given notice of work at least 4 weeks in advance to ensure the timing and expectations of the tasks are appropriate.

GP Advisors would be engaged as independent contractors and will invoice SWSPHN for hours of engagement at a rate of $150/hr (GST and superannuation inclusive).
